

Happy New Year!

Extra, Extra!

Read all about it!

Top news from 2013:

(In no particular order).

* Lloyd Family Moves AGAIN!

We know what you're thinking: What? Again? Are those people ever going to settle down?

We certainly hope so! 3rd move since leaving TX in 2011. Perhaps 2014 will find us in a home of our own ~~permanently~~ for a while. ;)

* We Reach New Heights!

Hard to believe? It's true. (Sort of).

Smash (sometimes known as Ashton) pole vaulted his way to CO state competition. Vaulting at 14' 6" and up, up, up! He did all the work but we cheered him on!

Megan also reached a new height; she now stands at 4'11"! And has passed up her big sis! (Shh, don't tell Emily!)

* We Go Global!

Our travels took us many places. Nathan logged the most miles this year by living and working in Mexico City, touring beautiful parts of Mexico, visiting Argentina, and NYC!

* We REPRESENT!

Emily truly represents this year! She is in the Lord's service full-time in New York, and loving every minute! We happily (and gratefully) support her!

* We are Expanding!

(More than our waist lines...)

Nathan found us a wonderful new daughter! He and Diana will be married on April 25th! Exciting news!

* We Go the Distance!

Jonathan and I celebrated our 25th anniversary in Glacier National Park last July.

We are now blessed with more family time (extended) as we are able to travel more quickly to visit.

* We Love YOU!

We have struggled with the passing of some dear friends this year. We are thankful for each of you and your gift of friendship and love. Thank you for enriching our lives. ~The Lloyd Family
